Dies Irae, dies illa
 Solvet saeculum in favilla

(for three voices)

The musical score is written for three voices and consists of three systems of staves. Each system includes a vocal line (marked 'V') and two accompaniment lines (marked 'A I' and 'A II'). The time signature is 2/4. The first system shows the beginning of the piece with a vertical line indicating a measure rest for the vocal line. The second system continues the vocal line with a trill-like flourish above the first few notes. The third system shows the vocal line with a series of eighth notes and quarter notes, while the accompaniment lines provide harmonic support with various note values and rests.

Handwritten musical score for 'Eoan Chant'. The score is organized into three systems, each consisting of three staves. The top staff of each system is marked with a 'v' and the bottom with a 'II'. The notation includes various rhythmic values and melodic lines. Key annotations include a handwritten '2' at the top right, and the instruction '(Repeat 2nd -> 1st)' appearing in the second and third systems. The word 'etc.' is written at the end of the second and third systems. The score concludes with a double bar line.
